It seems that validation committees often don't look beyond the official documents. As a result, the validations may not be worth the paper they are written on. Try this one. One of the best bits of news recently was the downfall of Matthias Rath. He's the man who peddled vitamin pills for AIDS ...

Another worthless validation: the University of Wales and

All forms of ineffective treatment, "alternative" or otherwise, pose real dilemmas that are usually neglected. I use here the term "alternative medicine", rather than CAM (complementary and alternative medicine), because things that don't work are not medicine at all and can't be "complementary" to anything.
