How can I tell how competitive I am if I studied for the SAT and took it for the first time *without* doing a superscore-focused approach? I am a junior and just got my December scores for my first-ever SAT (740/750) but even though i thought it was pretty good and even though puts me in the top 2% of all sat takers it hardly even squeaks into the top 25% of many schools and that seems odd.

Yes, this is changing for those who take the test in August and September. Because ETS, the organization that issues the GRE, will not have a pool of scores to work from in calculating grades, you won't be able to see your score right after you take the test, and won't receive your score report until mid-November.
