when body language goes pdf

Body language is a type of nonverbal communication in which physical behaviors, as opposed to words, are used to express or convey information. Such behavior includes facial expressions, body posture, gestures, eye movement, touch and the use of space. Body language exists in both animals and humans, but this article focuses on interpretations of human body language.

Often it is reported that a dog has bitten without warning. This may be the case in a small number of incidences for example maternal aggression or idiopathic aggression/rage syndrome however in most cases the dog will have tried to convey its intentions or unease towards a particular situation. The behaviours will vary depending on the level of arousal from simply pulling back on the lead ...

"Any given method is only as effective as its implementation." Grammar-Translation Method (1890s-1930s): Around the turn-of-the-century, language students often translated cumbersome volumes from Classical Greek or Latin into English via this approach. It consisted mainly of exhaustive use of dictionaries, explanations of grammatical rules (in English), some sample sentences, and exercise ...
